

2010 Tumbleweed Tree Lighting & Parade of Lights

Potential Volunteer Information

Thank you for considering volunteering and assisting such a great community event. Below is an overview of our event and should provide you with some valuable information. Please take the time to review and we look forward to having you join our team.

Event History

The Tumbleweed Tree Lighting & Parade of Lights is a magical and spirited night as the community helps celebrate the holidays together. Visitors watch the most unique tree light up the night when the Mayor flips the switch and the holiday season in Historic Downtown Chandler officially begins. After the ceremony, a celebration begins and the creative floats, spirited organizations and businesses amaze viewers during their participation in the Parade of Lights.
